

“We Won the Civil Rights Battle but are We Losing the Inclusion War?” Capitol Hill Roundtable Luncheon

The Partnership for Innovation and Empowerment AND the Southern Christian Leadership Conference invite you to attend a panel discussion with Dr. Charles Steele, Jr., on the state of minority communities and their participation in the modern economy in America as well as transformational solutions to the debt crisis

Friday, April 26, 2019 12:00 - 1:00 pm EST
Rayburn House office Building Room 2060

LUNCH WILL BE SERVED

The purpose of this briefing is to educate policy makers and congressional staffers about the exclusion of many minority and disadvantaged communities from the current economic expansion. Specifically, this briefing is focused on discussing solutions to problems minority families and communities face when trying to gain financial security through participation in the modern economy. We will also be discussing the debt crisis and some potentially transformational solutions to help millions of Americans trapped in the student loan debt cycle.

MODERATOR

Kevin B. Kimble, Esq., Founder – Financial Services Innovation Coalition

PANELISTS

Dr. Charles Steele, Jr., President - Southern Christian Leadership Conference
Ariel Levinson-Waldman, Founding President and Director-Counsel – Tzedek DC
David Rixter, President & CEO - HCR Consulting
Joe Milam, Founder & CEO – AngelSpan
Mahesh Krishnan, Chief Medical Officer – DaVita
Kia Jackson, CEO – W.O.M.M.A.N. LLC

Please RSVP to Brady Buckner at bbuckner@fsicoalition.org.

In association with:

SCIC

