Dear Congressional Leadership,

The recent revelation that corporate business chains have received large amounts of PPP funds has been both shocking and disappointing. We need to address this problem immediately. Right now, the fate of millions of small businesses in America hangs in the balance.

Please find the following attached memorandum to both address and solve this problem. Please feel free to contact me at your earliest convenience to discuss this problem and course of action.

Sincerely,

Kevin B. Kimble, Esq.
